JANEE PELLETIER PROMOTED TO V.P.

Conference & Logistics Consultants' Five-Year Growth Drives Staff Requirement

Annapolis, MD [March 9, 2009]... Janeé Pelletier, CMP, has been promoted to Vice President of Conference & Logistics Consultants, Inc. The firm is one of the top 25 meeting and event firms in the Washington area, where Ms. Pelletier has been a Senior Account Manager for three years. Ms. Pelletier has a decade of experience in national and international meeting and event planning.

As the new Vice President she will be overseeing large client conferences, in addition to marketing and business development responsibilities. The firm's management recently added a Vice President position to keep up with growth, which has doubled between 2002 and 2007. Conference & Logistics Consultants' President, Paul Henning, noted "Janeé is an extremely accomplished event planner and a valuable member of our team. She has been key to our growth and client satisfaction in recent years. Her management skills and interface with our clients, along with her enthusiasm for finding solutions, made her the obvious choice for this position."

Ms. Pelletier is a Certified Meeting Professional with experience in government and association meeting planning in North America, Europe, and the Pacific Rim. She is a member of The American Society of Association Executives, and the Professional Convention Managers Association. Ms. Pelletier is also in her last semester of her M.B.A. at the Carey School of Business at Johns Hopkins University.

Since 1987, Conference & Logistics Consultants, Inc. has planned more than 2200 conferences and meetings. Conference & Logistics Consultants plans events that range from 50 to 10,000 attendees in both North America and Europe. The firm's clients include associations, corporations, and government agencies; the company has planned meetings and events for Microsoft, DuPont, the Association for Computing Machinery, the Giovanni Lorenzini Medical Foundation, and the Department of Homeland Security, and more. In 2009, the firm was named one of the top 25 meeting and event planners in the Washington area by the Washington Business Journal for the eleventh year in a row.
